

Goff Middle School

Home-School Compact for Learning

To accomplish the mission of Goff Middle School, it is necessary for all three stakeholders – parents, students, and teachers – to work together to provide the best possible education for all students. Our goal is to have every student meet their full potential both academically and socially. As such, all parties will participate in the compact as follows:

Students

- Take responsibility for learning and give 100% effort
- Strive toward becoming an independent learner
- Exhibit “Goff Pride” and be accountable for behavior
- Write and speak effectively
- Actively participate in class and take responsibility for all assignments
- Reason effectively and solve problems
- Get involved in school
- Be on time, prepared and ready to learn
- Be respectful and courteous to faculty and staff, classmates, and themselves
- Regularly check SkyWard
- Ensure responsible and proper care and use of Chromebook

Faculty and Staff

- Maintain open lines of communication with students and parents/guardians
- Have high expectations for all students
- Participate in on-going professional development
- Ensure students are accountable for their assignments and their behavior
- Help students learn to resolve conflicts in an appropriate and positive manner
- Regularly check and respond to e-mail
- Regularly update SkyWard
- Be available to help students beyond the classroom
- Provide engaging lessons that utilize and promote proper and regular use of Chromebook

Parents/Guardians

- Send their children to school on time daily and ready to learn with all necessary materials
- Review assignments and be aware of students’ responsibilities in school
- Support the school’s efforts to improve student learning
- Communicate openly with teachers and guidance staff
- Discuss school with their children and regularly check their agendas
- Work with the school to ensure success both academically and behaviorally
- Attend school sponsored family outreach events
- Regularly check SkyWard to monitor child’s academic progress
